CUSTOM GREETINGS PRODUCTION/ORDER DETAILS

The production cost of your greeting is affected mostly by the number of people (headshots) that will be included, since it takes the most time to "mask" a head from a photo.

After you've submitted a photo of a person and paid to use their headshot in a greeting, you never have to pay that charge again (unless you want to change their photo) and can use it in an unlimited amount of Laughingstock Design greetings.

Fill in your order information on the next page to determine the estimated cost of your greeting. You may also use it as an order form. However, the final cost of your greeting will be determined after your consultation - this form is only intended to help you calculate an estimate.

If you have any QUESTIONS, or to get started on the creation of your greeting, call us at 218-727-1063. Or you can email your idea, message, information, and any photos that will be included in the greeting to greetings@laughingstockdesign.com.

PHOTO SUBMISSION: Please email us the largest version of your digital photo file (in color). For print quality, photos should be 300 dpi with a clear, full frontal face shot at least the size of a quarter. We can not use any copyrighted photos (look for the © symbol). If you're unsure about a photo's copyright, don't send it to us. Acquire a different photo, or a digital camera to take a different photo, for submission. Frizzy or curly hair without a uniform edge around the head often looks unrealistic when "masked." Photos of people with this type of hair often turn out better in our greetings when they're wearing a hat (which will be included in the greeting) or something that gives their head a uniform edge.

Due to the custom, personal nature of Laughingstock Design products and services, all sales are final. Thank you for allowing us to help you spread some laughter!

“I've been sending Laughingstock Design greetings whenever possible for the last couple years, and now my friends joke that they invite me to events and send me a Christmas card only to get my greeting in return. They're constantly talking about them, and I've seen some of my cards from over a year ago still hanging around!”

~ Jeff Sutherland, Kansas City, MO

“We mailed fifty Christmas cards done by Laughingstock Design and got feedback from all fifty recipients. We were the talk of the holiday gatherings because of our card!”
